

Proof Of Concept Scope

For our proof of concept, we implemented one of the main operations that can be done with our badge concept: filtering. With this functionality, users will be able to easily determine the businesses that are adhering to certain safety policies. Our proof of concept also includes an integration with Google Maps, which is the beginning of the visual information that we plan to show to users as they navigate Zelp.